

3. Read the newspaper article "Mama Victoria goes out of her way to feed the needy". What challenges you when you read this account? What inspires you? She mentions some of the issues in her area. What are issues that are on your heart that you are acting on, or having a sense that you could be acting on?

Personal Reflection:

Prior to the next Justice Journey Workshop, please reflect and journal on the following:

1. Think of a time in which you acted to effect positive change in your own life. What caused you to take these actions?

2. Think of an individual who has had a significant, positive impact on your life. How did they do this? What did you appreciate about their approach?

3. What injustices have you acted to stop? What motivated you to act and what did you do?
What was the outcome?

Biblical Meditation:

Read Job 29 and reflect on how Job gives a defence of himself based on how he 'put on righteousness as my clothing; justice was my robe and my turban.'

What does this look like in your life, given your location, vocation and season of life?
